

I am completely against further deregulation of the media industry that would allow an even greater monopoly of our public resources. We have already seen the negative effect on the radio industry. Companies must be limited in how many stations they can own to allow smaller, independent outlets to survive. This is key to our democracy!!!